24 February 1945

Mr. M. I. McHugh
Chief, Procurement & Supply Branch
Room 200, North Building
Office of Strategic Services
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McHugh:

Your letter of 20 February 1945, advising us that it is not possible at this time to give blanket approval for OSS trucks to handle emergency shipments, has been received.

We appreciate the reasons for your decisions and feel they are entirely reasonable. The method that you suggest for obtaining trucks will be most satisfactory to us. Thank you for your cooperation and assistance.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD L. ULLMAN
Lieut., U.S.N.R.
OSS Representative
